ALPHA PSI OMEGA

Alpha Psi members were busy working on plays and acting in them. One production followed another so there was always something to do.

Each year they award two scholarships to promising dramatic students and also award oscars for the best actress and actor and the two best supporting players.

I CLUB

Black sweaters and bright orange I's were prominent on campus at freshman initiation, concession booths at games and on the arms of Homecoming queens.

I club members are all major athletic award winners. The aim of the group is to promote school loyalty and advance the athletic department. Two dinner-dances, one in the spring and one in the fall, were top activities for the year.
