The Spring FOOL event – “A Toast to Our Authors”

FOOL’s spring event will honor faculty from the Idaho State University Kasiska College of Health Professions at who published scholarly works in 2007. To enhance the celebration, there will be a wine tasting, accompanied by hors d’oeuvres. The event will take place on April 17th from 5:30 to 7:30pm at the Wood River Room in the ISU Pond Student Union.

An effort was undertaken to identify authors in the Kasiska College of Health Professions, and the following faculty members were identified as publishing monographs, scholarly articles, chapters, and other forms of scholarly works in 2007. FOOL apologizes to any faculty we inadvertently missed in our search.

- Jaishree Beedasy (Institute of Rural Health)
- Denise Bowen (Dental Hygiene)
- Leigh Cellucci (Health Care Administration)
- Carole Christie (Dental Hygiene)

There will be displays of the publications of the honored faculty at the event, and several of the faculty will speak to the attendees about their works. The displays will move to the Oboler Library afterwards.

Changes to the FOOL Board

The Friends Of Oboler Library Board has seen some changes recently. Loah Fay, our president-elect for 2007/2008, resigned due to an illness in the family. We are extremely grateful to Loah for her service to FOOL, and wish her and her family good health.

The new president-elect for 2007/2008 and president for 2008/2009 will be Keeven Shropshire. Keeven has been a member of FOOL since 2003, and a board member since 2006. Keeven is a founder of JHS Architects in Pocatello and is involved in Rotary and the Chamber of Commerce Local Issues Committee. He actively supports ISU on committees and campaigns.

FOOL would also like to welcome Dr. Leigh Cellucci to the FOOL Board. Dr. Cellucci has been a member of FOOL since 2006. She is an associate professor in Health Care Administration, and Director of the Center for Disability Evaluation at ISU. Her first job was working as a summer librarian at Miss Mason’s School in Charleston, SC when she was 14 years old.

FOOL would like to thank both Keeven and Leigh for their willingness to serve on behalf of all FOOLs.
