The Idaho Bengal boxers walked off with the honors in the First Annual Intermountain Intercollegiate Boxing Tournament, held in Pocatello on March 13, 14, and 15., copping four titles and the perpetual trophy given by the Pocatello Gridiron Club. Captain Ted Maheras received the trophy in behalf of the team from Brick Thompson, representing the Gridiron Club.

In top picture the participants are shown with the thirty-three inch trophy.

The following members of the team were crowned champions in their classes at the meet:

Saul Hirschberg - - - - - - -	125 lb. class
Dale Hammond - - - - - - - -	135 lb. class
Ted Maheras - - - - - - - - -	145 lb. class
Don Neilsen - - - - - - - - -	155 lb. class

Cecil Flint, 175 pound man, was runner-up in his weight in the tourney, while Denny Anderson, heavyweight, and Colin Drake, lightweight, were semi-finalists in their respective classes.

All the Bengal lettermen will return next year. Coach Dubby Holt is planning meets with Nevada, Idaho, Gonzaga, Brigham Young, and Western State for the next season.

Ted Maheras puts his man on the canvas to win his bout.

After breaking his right hand in the first round, Don Neilson went on to put his man down for the count in the third.

Ted Maheras again proving his right to head the Bengal Boxers.

Tough and popular Dale Hammond adds another win to his record of sixty-four wins, no defeats.
