Many Thanks

A Final Word Now That The Book Is Finished

My only desire is that you the students of Idaho State are both satisfied and pleased with this edition of the WICKIUP. We have tried to present in graphic form a record of a year at ISC. Our success in this matter depends upon you and your acceptance of our efforts.

First, my thanks to you students of Idaho State College for this opportunity to work for you, to serve you, and to edit your yearbook. . . .

To my staff for the long hours of tedious work you put in, for your advice and assistance. Doris and Pat; thank you for the job you did on your sections. Gene; the drawings were very good, thank you too. Bill; I'm proud of your work on sports copy. Ruth and Karen; you were the mainstays of the staff. Thanks for your help, your consistency, and even tempers when the tension grew tight. Jim and Dick; thanks fellows, without the advertising you sold, the book could never have been published. And to you other staffers: Frank, Ray, Al, and Helen, the work you did and the responsibility you assumed did much toward the success of our venture. To all of you again, thanks; and may our friendships continue. . . .

To Mr. Jean Swanson, for your patience when I missed percentage deadlines, for your very helpful advice, and for your every effort to see that the book was delivered on time. Thanks Swan. . . .

To Mr. Wallace Garets, our advisor, for your guidance and support in our new attempts within the book. . . .

To the Honorable Ira Masters, Secretary of State, and to Tommy Barrett and Bill Shaklett for making available scenics I was unable to shoot myself. Your pictures add much to the personality of the book. . . .

To the administration and faculty of ISC for your support and assistance to myself and the staff during the production of the book. . . .

To the Caxton Printers Ltd., Beaver Engraving Co. and Kingsport Press Inc. for your part. Through mechanics you made the book a success. . . .

To our advertisers for your support; to Mr. Roy Hanaki for the class and organization panels, and to Mr. J. P. Gallagher for your part. . . .

And last, but not least, to my family. Especially for your encouragement, advice, and extreme patience. I guess it's rough to have a yearbook editor in the family. Thanks Mom and Dad. Thanks. . . .

To many people go many thanks because without them there could have been no WICKIUP.

To all of these, and others I have neglected to mention, who in any way helped, what more can I say than just plain . . .

THANKS.

DONALD M. PUGMIRE, Editor.
