Linda Groom’s stunning photographs reflect her worldwide travels, from Idaho to Burma and beyond. An Idaho native, she graduated from the University of Idaho, taught junior high, owned a yarn store, and spent nearly 20 years as a real estate associate broker. She is on the Boards of Directors for the Idaho State Civic Symphony and the Pocatello Art Center, and is a member of Pocatello Rotary. Linda found her true passion behind the lens; beauty, she writes, can be found everywhere. This exhibit will include images of the ancient temples in Palmyra, Syria taken by Ms. Groom shortly before the UNESCO World Heritage site was destroyed by ISIS bombers this Fall.
